Today's readings speak of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for his guests all that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart's desire - a son. Martha also busied herself with all the details of hospitality, but grudgingly and with complaint. Am I a cheerful or a grudging giver?

Texas Flooding Relief

Recent flooding has devastated parts of central Texas. At least 24 lives have been lost and dozens more are missing. Families are displaced and in urgent need of assistance. Our local Catholic Charities agencies are on the ground, providing essential aid to those affected. In the response to the devastation, the Diocese of Saginaw is collaborating with Catholic Charities USA (CCUSA). Donations may be made online on a link that will be provided soon to all parishes or by check payable to Diocese of Saginaw, 5800 Weiss St, Saginaw, MI 48603, 'Attn: Maria Coss' with 'Texas Flood Relief' specified in the memo line. Please direct questions to Maria Coss at (989) 797.6646.

100% of donations go directly to helping survivors recover and rebuild. Thank you for sending hope in this time of crisis.

Youth Group

HUGE thank you to all who participated in the bake sale over the past weekend at Szymanski's Creekside Acres! Our families, church parishioners, neighbors, friends, grandmas and grandpas, cousins, etc. baked their hearts out for a successful bake sale. Some donations are still trickling in, but we will make over $900! Woohoo! Thanks to everyone who baked, worked at the sale, set up, took down, priced, bought, advertised and helped in any way, shape or form, we thank you. We met so many nice people at this event and worked also on a bit of evangelizing. Thanks everyone, once again, for the support. This $ will help with our upcoming service projects, social events, and class supplies for the next school year.

SITE OF THE WEEK

Transubstantiation is the electricity that powers Catholicity. Without the reality of the Divine Presence in the host we receive at Holy Communion, our church is just another one out of more than the 40,000 other churches that claim to be Christian. This week you can help yourself to an understanding that will make your faith come to life. You can easily click on the link to this site by using the parish website. <https://youtu.be/ObaBxmykNI8?si=s8yYpjbX1VRV3cOM>
